WASHINGTON Canadian society known as the traditional protection of animals, but also has a long history of hunting and fur trafficking, Canadian fur exports may even be regarded as the first "pillar economic sectors." November 30, the Cabinet of Ministers of Ontario, the province, Mr Moreau (Bill Mauro) and 莱雅尔 (Jeff Leal) jointly issued a proclamation declaring the province will recover from 2016 onwards traditional, allowing the spring black bear hunt "Pilot Programme", for a period of five years, which means 2016--2020 years after the approval of the spring black bear hunting will become legitimate.

Ontario announced that since 1999, can not be in the spring black bear hunt, because spring is the black bear in heat, mating, breeding and breeding season, allowing only a limited black bear hunting in the summer. But people of this restriction critics point out, in the spring of bear meat because just after hibernation and more delicious, and the summer of bear meat is insipid, ban spring hunting black bears, so in North America has a long history, it has formed a unique culture of hunting Bear activity marred, local tourism, hunting supplies and camping equipment, and other industries and therefore subject to great impact.

Moreover, some regions in northern Ontario, as 401 corridors were local residents generally rely on hunting bears Clarendon, Port Perry, etc., or to provide bear hunting services to maintain economic, they spring bear hunt ban also complained.

To appease those opposed to the ban, in 2014 the provincial government announced a two-year spring bear hunting "test" policy, which until the end of June this year. And the lever end of the old "test", the new "pilot" cub, each holder of each hunting season hunters only black bear hunting, etc.), but the original "test" only allows Ontario residents who meet the requirements to apply for the bear hunt, the new "test" as long as the holder of a license, regardless of where people are.

Some groups benefit this rejoicing, they said, the United States is known to hunt black bear, the bearskin collections as a cultural tradition, open spring bear hunting and is suitable for tourists, will explore the potential of the huge US consumer market hunting, security President of the Provincial Tourism supplies industry organizations (NOTO) Bowman (Brenda Baughman) said that even Ontario spring bear hunting ban, Quebec and Manitoba also hunting is not wrong according to the so-called "hunting protected animals" no practical significance instead, he drove the business and tourists. But animal protection organizations such as the Canadian Animal Protection Alliance (AAC), head of White (Liz White,) claimed that this decision was "utilitarian, political and sad."

In this regard the Northern Policy Institute (NPI) analyst Comet more (Mike Commito) report in mid-August last year suggested that, given reopened in the spring black bear hunting seems to have been inevitable that the current focus should shift to minimize open spring hunting on the bear's side effects, he believes, should be increased to at least apply for hunting bears are training to allow them to quickly and accurately ascertain bears opposite sex, adult males can be hunted, or prohibit hunting of females.
