Find Your North By The Numbers

Posted on Wednesday, September 23, 2015 09:56 AM

On the economic front, getting information on Northern Ontario is just a click away thanks to the Northern Policy Institute. The institute, with the help of two other northern think tanks, has assembled a collection of government survey data for anyone to use. President Charles Cirtwill says it will provide all kinds of government information. You can get connected to the north-by-numbers site HERE (<http://www.northbynumbers.ca/>).
